

Lynn Janovich
Aerial Arts

Lynn was a lovely surprise that arrived on our doorstep during Covid-19. As her life was put on hold in LA, CA, she opted to pack up her car and drive to sunny Florida to continue her life as a Circus Artist.

Thank you California!

Lynn comes from a rich background of training and performing in the LA area. She trained and taught at Kinetic Theory, a very well respected Circus School in the US. She was 3rd place winner in Circus Star USA 2015 and even had the privilege of auditioning for Cirque du Soleil.

Lynn specializes in aerial silks, static trapeze, dance trapeze and corde lisse (rope).

We are delighted to have her join our Circus family and look forward to our students' progress with her raucously energetic classes!
